ComplianceDoc has been specifically developed by a dedicated and experienced Irish based team whose primary focus was to meet the safety compliance requirements for SME's here in Ireland. ComplianceDoc was made possible by drawing on a wealth of first-hand experience and knowledge in dealing with business owners all over Ireland by recognising that an affordable, easy, secure and convenient option for developing safety statements to the current legal requirement did not exist.....until now!

ComplianceDoc is backed by the Cork based Irish safety consultancy company Tilleard Goya Ltd, which was set up in 2005 to provide safety compliance resources for SME's here in Ireland. In addition to work here, the company has also been able to provide safety consultancy services to oil exploration clients around the world and has carried out work for oil majors and oil exploration contractors in Venezuela, Dubai, Norway and Canada.

ComplianceDoc is competitively priced – at only €499 (ex VAT) per user for a one year subscription, our process not only makes things easier – it saves you money and if you have multiple sites, we can even offer you a discount (contact us for details)! Enjoy a time and money saving process while protecting your business from potential non-compliance penalty worries.

ComplianceDoc ensures complete confidentiality by using SSL encrypted technology for secure web access to our site and, of course a secure process for automated online payments using 3DSecure, an additional security feature of the RealEx payment system.

ComplianceDoc is also a useful online resource for Irish SME's to access guidance documents and reference from professional safety organisations (including the Irish Health and Safety Authority, UK Health and Safety Executive and the European Union Occupational Safety and Health Administration).
